

Hymns for Eastertide

St Peter's Church Phibsborough

Jesus Christ is ris'n today, Alleluia!
our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!
who did once upon the cross Alleluia!
suffer to redeem our loss. Alleluia!

Hymns of praise then let us sing Alleluia!
unto Christ our heav'nly King, Alleluia!
who endured the cross and grave, Alleluia!
sinners to redeem and save. Alleluia!

But the pains which he endured, Alleluia!
our salvation have procured; Alleluia!
now above the sky he's King, Alleluia!
where the angels ever sing. Alleluia!

Sing we to our God above Alleluia!
praise eternal as his love; Alleluia!
praise him, all ye heav'nly host, Alleluia!
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia!

Shine Jesus Shine

Lord, the Light of Your Love is shining,
In the midst of the darkness shining,
Jesus, Light of the World, shine upon us,
Set us free by the truth You now bring us,
Shine on me. Shine on me.

Shine, Jesus shine,
Fill this land with the Father's glory.
Blaze, Spirit blaze,
Set our hearts on fire.
Flow, river flow,
Flood the nations with grace and mercy.
Send forth Your word,
Lord and let there be light.

Lord I come to Your awesome presence,
From the shadows into Your radiance.
By the blood I may enter Your brightness,
Search me, try me, consume all my darkness.
Shine on me. Shine on me.

Come Christians all rejoice and sing,
with thankful hearts your praises bring,
risen now is our Lord and King!

On Sunday morn, at break of day,
the sad disciples made their way,
seeking the place where Jesus lay.

The Marys went, oppressed by care,
with ointments mixed with spices rare,
his blessed body to prepare.

An angel by the tomb they see,
who speaks to them triumphantly:
"Jesus is now in Galilee".

Then Peter and John quickly came,
they search the tomb with hearts aflame,
his resurrection they proclaim.

That very night, our Saviour dear
to his disciples did appear,
spoke loving words to calm their fear.

Now let us thank the Lord most high.
and with our praises fill the sky,
for Christ is risen, no more to die!

I am the bread of life,

You who come to me shall not hunger,
You who believe in me shall not thirst.
No one can come to me
unless the Father beckon

And I will raise you up and I will raise you up and I will raise you up on the last day

The bread that I will give
is my flesh for the life of the world
and if you eat of this bread,
you shall live forever,
you shall live forever

Unless you eat
of the flesh of the son of man
and drink of His blood
and drink of His blood
You shall not have life within you

The Good Shepherd

Fr Aidan CM PP

To be compared with sheep does not appear much of a compliment; sheep have a reputation for being over-docile, following each other snout-to-tail in an uncritical fashion. There are even those who maintain that speaking of God's people as sheep has had, over the centuries, the effect of stifling initiative among lay people. But are these negative qualities of sheep, whether real or alleged the ones Jesus had in mind? Indeed not. First and foremost for Jesus, the shepherd enjoys a kind of instinctive communication with his sheep. It's an acquired capacity to read little signals or symptoms, so that the shepherd has a sense of what the sheep want and more importantly, need.

We all have a desire to be known: to be perfectly, intimately, known. We want someone else to understand our fears and anxieties, and to witness and share our joys and happiness. But – and this is a very large 'but' indeed – we want this someone never to abuse this knowledge. We need to be known in this intimate way by someone who will never disparage or humiliate us, never use or manipulate us. We need a well-grounded absolute trust in this perfect confidant or we might be seriously damaged by him or her. We need the security of being understood, accepted and loved. This is the quality of relationship offered us by Jesus.

Friendship with the Good Shepherd is not simply a crutch to help us hobble a little better through life. It is something far more. It is an invitation to enter into a deeply personal and intimate relationship with a loving saviour. Jesus makes the extraordinary promise that he will know us in the way the Father knows him.

“My sheep hear my voice; I know them and they know me,” he says. Haven't you ever longed to hear the voice of someone who could make things alright, who could lift the burdens from your shoulders? Someone who knows you by name and loves you? Jesus says he is that someone.
