

Hymns for Eastertide

Jesus Christ is ris'n today, Alleluia!
our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!
who did once upon the cross Alleluia!
suffer to redeem our loss. Alleluia!

Hymns of praise then let us sing Alleluia!
unto Christ our heav'nly King, Alleluia!
who endured the cross and grave, Alleluia!
sinners to redeem and save. Alleluia!

But the pains which he endured, Alleluia!
our salvation have procured; Alleluia!
now above the sky he's King, Alleluia!
where the angels ever sing. Alleluia!

Sing we to our God above Alleluia!
praise eternal as his love; Alleluia!
praise him, all ye heav'nly host, Alleluia!
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia!

Shine Jesus Shine

Lord, the Light of Your Love is shining,
In the midst of the darkness shining,
Jesus, Light of the World, shine upon us,
Set us free by the truth You now bring us,
Shine on me. Shine on me.

Shine, Jesus shine,
Fill this land with the Father's glory.
Blaze, Spirit blaze,
Set our hearts on fire.
Flow, river flow,
Flood the nations with grace and mercy.
Send forth Your word,
Lord and let there be light.

Lord I come to Your awesome presence,
From the shadows into Your radiance.
By the blood I may enter Your brightness,
Search me, try me, consume all my darkness.
Shine on me. Shine on me.

St Peter's Church Phibsborough

Come Christians all rejoice and sing,
with thankful hearts your praises bring,
risen now is our Lord and King!

On Sunday morn, at break of day,
the sad disciples made their way,
seeking the place where Jesus lay.

The Marys went, oppressed by care,
with ointments mixed with spices rare,
his blessed body to prepare.

An angel by the tomb they see,
who speaks to them triumphantly:
"Jesus is now in Galilee".

Then Peter and John quickly came,
they search the tomb with hearts aflame,
his resurrection they proclaim.

That very night, our Saviour dear
to his disciples did appear,
spoke loving words to calm their fear.

Now let us thank the Lord most high.
and with our praises fill the sky,
for Christ is risen, no more to die!

I am the bread of life,

You who come to me shall not hunger,
You who believe in me shall not thirst.
No one can come to me
unless the Father beckon

And I will raise you up and I will raise you up and I will raise you up on the last day

The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world and if you eat of this bread,
you shall live forever,
you shall live forever

Unless you eat
of the flesh of the son of man
and drink of His blood
and drink of His blood
You shall not have life within you

Lay Leadership? A week in the life of...

Kevin Mullally

(Parish Pastoral Worker)

As I think back on setting my eyes on the information flyer for Parish Pastoral Workers I recall words such as: "Lay, Disciple, Call, Vocation, Professional, Ministry, Discernment, Baptism, come and see". So I thought about applying to be a Parish Pastoral Worker for the Dublin Diocese appointed by the Archbishop.

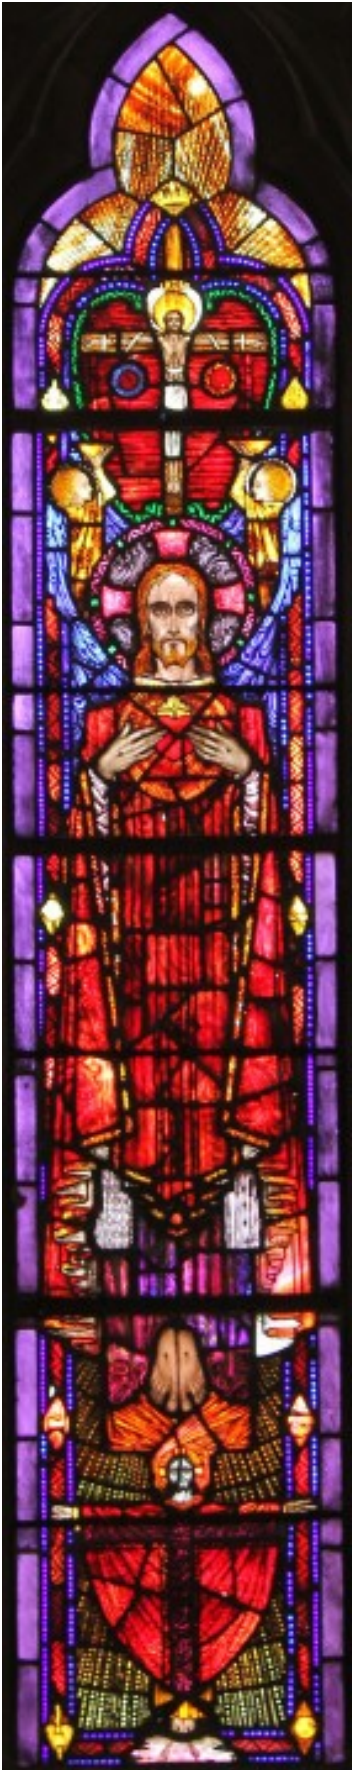

I resigned from teaching and applied; I had all the necessary entry qualifications and experience. I had to sit a 2 hour entry interview, 2 hour psychological assessment, spiritual conversations and a 4-page personal statement. Out of 110 applications that year, 10 lay men and women were chosen to begin the 12 months of study of a Post grad diploma in religion (PPW specialisation); academics, placement, prayer and reflection in the Mater Dei Institute in preparation for the position and I was one of them. We were commissioned by Archbishop Martin in the Pro-Cathedral as Parish Pastoral Workers for the Dublin Diocese and my first appointment for 8 years was St Brigid's Blanchardstown / Pelletstown.

The original advertisement for the position included the information that the PPW role had its foundations on four pillars: 'Prayer, Relationship, Education, Animation", never has a statement rang so true for every year I have been a Parish Pastoral Worker. Every detail of my working day for the past 9 and a half years is about each and every one of those named foundations, relationship being the most fundamental of them all; loitering with intent.

"What do I do?", you might ask. Let me try to give you a taste of the things I can be involved in over a week: meet and chat with parishioners I know and those I want to get to know better, work and plan with the Parish Team and the Parish Pastoral Councils, pray with groups and individuals, assist the bereaved in the Funeral Liturgy Mass, work with the children for First Holy Communion, work with the children for Confirmation, work with the schools in general and the R.E. programme, facilitate and resource Adult Faith Development, lead Lectio and Visio Divina, co-ordinate the Eucharistic Ministers, train new readers, work with the RCIA programme, sing at liturgies, lead other sacramentals and liturgies, organise coffee mornings, co-ordinate seasonal themed gatherings, call into the Secondary Schools and R.E. teams, co-ordinate the John Paul II awards, organise and lead pilgrimages and retreat days, attend Pastoral Council, Cluster and Deanery meetings, attend monthly Pastoral reflection sessions and Spiritual direction and spend some time in the office doing paper work, hours and future planning.

But overall and apart from the details my hope is that I mirror what it is to be in lay leadership in the Faith Community.

Ministry Sunday Collection
A special Ministry Sunday Collection will take place at all Masses this weekend, replacing the usual Share Collection. This new collection will support the building up of new forms of lay ministry in our parishes. The work of spreading the Gospel of Jesus in our changing religious culture requires more lay men and women working in various ways alongside our priests. While many will be volunteers, we will have to equip and train leaders and provide facilities for formation. We want to work towards a situation where all parishes in our diocese benefit from their gifts and expertise. This new collection is one step in that process.
