

Hymns for June 2019

1 Take and Eat, take and eat,
this is my body given up for you.
Take and drink take and drink.
This is my cup given out for you

I am the Word that spoke and light was made
I am the seed that died to be reborn
I am the bread that comes from Heaven above
I am your peace true peace my gift to you

2 Eat this Bread, drink this cup
come to me and never be hungry,
eat this bread, drink this cup
come to me and you shall not thirst

I am the bread of life
the true bread sent from the Father

Your ancestors ate manna in the desert
but this is the bread come down from Heaven

Eat my flesh and drink my blood and I will raise you up on the last day

3 I am the bread of life
You who come to me shall not hunger.
You who believe in me shall not thirst.
No one can come to me unless the Father beckon

And I will raise you up
and I will raise you up
and I will raise you up on the last day.

The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world and if you eat of this bread,
you shall live forever,
you shall live forever

Unless you eat
of the flesh of the Son of man
and drink of His blood
and drink of His blood
you shall not have life within you.

4 Sing praise to our Creator,
Redeemed of Adam's race;
God's children by adoption,
Baptized into His grace.

St Peter's Church
Phibsborough

Praise the Holy Trinity,
Undivided Unity
Holy God, Mighty God,
God Immortal, be adored.

To Jesus Christ give glory,
God's co-eternal Son;
As members of His Body
we live in Him as one.

Now praise the Holy Spirit,
poured forth upon the earth;
Who sanctifies and guides us,
Confirmed in our rebirth.

5 God of day and God of darkness,
now we stand before the night.
As the shadows stretch and deepen,
come and make our darkness bright.
All creation still is groaning for the dawning of your might.
When the Sun of peace and justice fills the earth with radiant light.

Still the nations curse the darkness,
still the rich oppress the poor.
Still the earth is bruised and broken
by the ones who still want more.
Come and wake us from our sleeping,
so our hearts cannot ignore
all your people lost and broken,
all your children at our door.

Show us Christ in one another.
Make us servants strong and true.
Give us all your love of justice,
so we do what you would do.
Let us call all people holy.
Let us pledge our lives anew.
Make us one with all the lowly.
Let us all be one in you.

You shall be the path that guides us;
you the light that in us burns.
Shining deep within all people,
yours the love that we must learn.
For our hearts shall wander restless
'til they safe to you return.
Finding you in one another,
we shall all your face discern.

CHANGE IS ALL AROUND
Fr Aidan CM

Sometime ago Phibsborough was named one of the coolest neighbourhoods in the world by Time Out magazine. It ranked the village in 27th place - ahead of neighbourhoods in San Francisco, Montreal, Shanghai and Boston. The magazine's editors say Phibsborough has become "more bustling than ever" since the Luas line appeared and modern cafés opening in previously dilapidated buildings. The towering cranes hanging over Grangegorman indicate further changes are on the way as we await the arrival of a possible 20,000 students.

In the 2016 Census 78.3% of respondents nationally described themselves as Catholic and of those living within the boundaries of St Peter's Parish, 45% identified themselves as so. Change is happening all around.

With change come both challenges and opportunities. So it was in 1838 when the Vincentian Community came to St Peter's. There was little of an organised spiritual nature to assist the thousands who lived in mud huts around the church, yet within a few years the church needed to be expanded to cope with those attending and by 1845 the Vincent de Paul Society and The Ladies of Charity of St Peter's were supplying food and clothing to the poor in most of the north side of Dublin.

The challenge for us as a Parish Community now is to continue to be a vibrant, compassionate space and place where people can enter in and be held, restored and transformed as they face the major issues of their lives. To be there for them when they come in joy to have a child baptised or when they come in grief to mourn the loss of those they have loved. To be a place where all are welcome and where the lonely find comfort and the searching find support for their quest. A community where the loving embrace of God continues to bring healing and hope to each of us.

In January 2020 we will welcome back Fr Eamon Devlin as Parish Priest. From his past experience living in Phibsborough and his personal gifts of gentleness and compassion he is ideally suited to help the parish face with energy the challenging and life-giving world God has blessed us with now.
