1 LORD OF ALL HOPEFULNESS

Lord of all joy,
Whose trust, ever child-like,
No cares could destroy,
Be there at our waking,
And give us, we pray,
Your bliss in our hearts, Lord,
At the break of the day.

Lord of all eagerness, Lord of all faith,
Whose strong hands were skilled
At the plane and the lathe,
Be there at our labours,
And give us, we pray,
Your strength in our hearts, Lord,
At the noon of the day.

Lord of all kindness, Lord of all grace,
Your hands swift to welcome,
Your arms to embrace,
Be there at our homing,
And give us, we pray,
Your love in our hearts, Lord,
At the eve of the day.

Lord of all gentleness, Lord of all calm,
Whose voice is contentment,
Whose presence is balm,
Be there at our sleeping,
And give us, we pray,
Your peace in our hearts, Lord,
At the end of the day.

2 ALL ARE WELCOME

Let us build a house
where love can dwell
And all can safely live,
A place where
saints and children tell
How hearts learn to forgive.
Built of hopes and dreams and visions,
Rock of faith and vault of grace;
Here the love of Christ shall end divisions;
Let us build a house where prophets speak,
And words are strong and true,
Where all God's children dare to seek
To dream God's reign anew.
Here the cross shall stand as witness
And a symbol of God's grace;
Here as one we claim the faith of Jesus:
Let us build a house where love is found
In water, wine and wheat:
A banquet hall on holy ground,
Where peace and justice meet.
Here the love of God, through Jesus,
Is revealed in time and space;
As we share in Christ the feast that frees us:
All are welcome, all are welcome,
All are welcome in this place.

3 PRAISE, MY SOUL, THE KING OF HEAVEN;

To His feet thy tribute bring.
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Who like thee His praise should sing:
Praise Him, praise Him, praise Him, praise Him,
Praise the everlasting King.

Praise Him for His grace and favor
To our fathers in distress;
Praise Him still the same forever,
Slow to chide, and swift to bless.
Praise Him, praise Him, praise Him, praise Him,
Glorious in His faithfulness.

4 TAKE AND EAT

Take and eat; take and eat:
this is my body given up for you.
Take and drink; take and drink:
this is my blood given up for you.

I am the Word that spoke and light was made;
I am the seed that died to be reborn;
I am the bread that comes from heav'n above;
I am the vine that fills your cup with joy.

I am the way that leads the exile home;
I am the truth that sets the captive free;
I am the life that raises up the dead;
I am your peace, true peace my gift to you.

I am the Lamb that takes away your sin;
I am the gate that guards you night and day;
You are my flock: you know the shepherd's voice;
You are my own: your ransom is my blood.

I am the light that came into the world;
I am the light that darkness cannot hide;
I am the morning star that never sets;
Lift up your face, in you my light will shine.

5 GLORY AND PRAISE TO OUR GOD

Who alone gives light to our days
Many are the blessings He bears
To those who trust in His ways

We the daughters and sons of Him
Who built the valleys and plains
Praise the wonders our God has done
In every heart that sings

In His wisdom He strengthens us
Like gold that's tested in fire
Though the power of sin prevails
Our God is there to save

Every moment of every day
Our God is waiting to save
Always ready to seek the lost
To answer those who pray

Contemplation ruled his days

A reflection on St Vincent de Paul
Fr Eamon Flanagan CM

My original background was a location outside the Vincentian fold. My secondary school was St Nathy's diocesan college in the west of Ireland. There I had educators, priests and lay people, who were excellent. Before entering seminary I met just three Vincentian priests who each had three major characteristics in common: they were all cheerful, happy, fulfilled; they did very valuable pastoral work; and each one of these priests was most prayerful. These qualities were authentic and attractive to a young man of eighteen. And so, my years in Vincentian seminary and later as a priest in the Congregation of St Vincent followed, right up to the present time. I thank God for all in a long life.

The charism of St Vincent (1581-1660) is appealing and accessible. St Vincent, of humble background from southern France, studied, was ordained young, and went to Paris. There in the early 1600s he befriended zealous, holy men and women who were in the vanguard of church renewal in the post-Tridentine epoch. Vincent founded and promoted great groups, societies, and works for the poor, the clergy, for education, and evangelising. He wrote voluminously, gave innumerable talks and sermons, and guided thousands of people in his ministry. How did he do it all? I find this line helps to explain: "Contemplation ruled his days." Daily, he meditated one hour, offered Mass, visited Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, prayed to our Lady, and said the Divine Office. The energy and spiritual power from his prayer flowed into his own life, and was channelled out among the people he served. God was first and central in his existence. St Vincent testifies to the necessity of prayer. He says: "Prayer is a mirror where the soul can see itself, and become like to God." He adds: "Prayer is a book from which one draws out divine truths of the Eternal Word; it is a fountain, to share afterwards with the people."

We can see that prayer is an experience of God; it is conversation with the Holy Trinity, leading to union with God. Prayer brings calmness, wisdom, guidance, discernment, love, and hope. Prayer steers one through trials, temptations, purifications. Prayer opens the door to a fuller, deeper spiritual life. Prayer gives birth to saints; it brings balance to life, and mindfulness towards ourselves, the world, people, and God. Prayer, with the sacraments of our Church bestows unlimited power to do good works (which without prayer would be empty and probably superficial). Prayer is the way of the mystics, along with a growing desire to do God's will in deeper consecration. St Vincent's way of life shows us the harmony he realised between active deeds on the one hand and a deep interior life on the other hand. From inspiration by St Vincent we can deepen our whole Catholic life. It may not be easy for a busy working person, student, or daily commuter to a city job. None-the-less, it's worth considering as fairly basic the following: morning and night prayers, Angelus, Rosary, and possibly five (or ten) minutes daily of quiet prayer (perhaps based on the Gospel). Prayer changed St Vincent; it can change us.
