A LONG RUNNING AFFAIR OF THE HEART

St Peter's Church or rather the people of Phibsborough have had a long running affair of the heart with the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The Sodality of the Sacred Heart, the first in Ireland, was established here in 1873, 149 years ago. The Church itself reflects this long running relationship, with shrines to honour the Sacred Heart at the back and at the front of the Church, and of course the famous Harry Clarke window in the former Chapel of Adoration.

Today people of all ages and many different nationalities and even various religious persuasions are drawn to the Heart of Jesus which expresses the love of God in Jesus' desire to relate to us at the deepest level of our being. It is from the Heart of Jesus, pierced by a lance on the cross, that blood and water flowed, symbolising the divinity and humanity of Jesus whose life flows into the hearts of all who believe through the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist where we enter into communion through the Body and Blood of Christ. Revealing His wounded heart to St Margaret Mary Alacoque in 1689, Jesus invites us to a close relationship with Him through prayer and time spent in the company of the Heart of Jesus present in the Blessed Sacrament.

Our Triduum of Masses on 22nd, 23rd & 24th of June will culminate on the Feast of the Sacred Heart with a procession of the Blessed Sacrament and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

LITURGICAL READINGS FOR: Sunday, 19 June 2022

FIRST READING

A reading from the Book of Genesis

Melchizedek king of Salem brought bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High.

He pronounced this blessing:

'Blessed be Abram by God Most High, creator of heaven and earth, and blessed be God Most High for handing over your enemies to you.'

And Abram gave him a tithe of everything.

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Response: You are a priest for ever, a priest like Melchizedek of old.

1. The Lord's revelation to my Master:

'Sit on my right:

I will put your foes beneath your feet.'

2. The Lord will send from Zion

your sceptre of power:

rule in the midst of all your foes.

3. A prince from the day of your birth

on the holy mountains;

from the womb before the daybreak I begot you.

4. The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change.

'You are a priest for ever,

a priest like Melchizedek of old.'

SECOND READING

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, 'This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.'

In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said,

'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.'

Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming his death.

The Word of the Lord

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread which has come down from heaven, says the Lord. Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

A reading from the Gospel according to Luke

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing.

It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said, 'Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.'

He replied, 'Give them something to eat yourselves.'

But they said, 'We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.'

For there were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, 'Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.'

They did so and made them all sit down.

Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd.

They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets.

The Gospel of the Lord.

FREE LIVE CONCERT - Sunday 19th June: 12.30pm - 6.00pm

Today a live concert will take place in Mountjoy Square Park with thirteen Gospel Choirs participating including the Forget Me Nots Choir, a choir that unites older people and those affected by dementia. Food trucks, children's entertainment and picnic tables all available. No tickets required.

SAFEGUARDING TRAINING - Tuesday 21 June: 11.00am - 12.30pm / 7.00pm - 8.30pm

Updated safeguarding training will take place for staff and volunteers on 21 June. IN LOVING MEMORY

Please remember in your prayers all those who died recently especially Doreen Morrissey and Kathleen Breen.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
