DIVES AND LAZARUS; A LOST OPPORTUNITY

The Beano comic book used to sell, in its early days, for 2d (old money). Some years ago an edition from 1939 sold for £4,264 (sterling money). It was only one of 11 copies believed to be in existence.

This goes to show that what seems of little importance or value today may be very valuable tomorrow. It is good to prize things now, rather than regret later. That is deeply true of the rich man (DIVES) in the gospel today. He didn't put much value on Lazarus, the beggar at his doorstep. Later, when he sees how important Lazarus is (now in Abraham's bosom), he comes to realise his error. But it's too late.

This is not an easy Parable. Dives may not have harmed Lazarus during his lifetime; but Dives' heartless indifference to Lazarus' plight was evil enough to land him in what we call hell.

If we love money/possessions more than God, we will never have a genuine, close friendship with God. The contrary is true: if we truly love God more than money/possessions, then we should use what we own to serve God and humanity.

Dives had an opportunity to serve God and Lazarus. He missed it.

LITURGICAL READINGS FOR: Sunday, 25 September 2022

FIRST READING

A reading from the Book of Amos

The almighty Lord says this:

Woe to those ensconced so snugly in Zion
and to those who feel so safe on the mountain of Samaria.

Lying on ivory beds

and sprawling on their divans,
they dine on lambs from the flock,

and stall-fattened veal;

they bawl to the sound of the harp,

they invent new instruments of music like David,

they drink wine by the bowlful,

and use the finest oil for anointing themselves,

but about the ruin of Joseph they do not care at all.

That is why they will be the first to be exiled;

the sprawlers' revelry is over.

The Word of the Lord.

RESPOSORIAL PSALM Ps 145

Response: My soul, give praise to the Lord.

1. It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever,
who is just to those who are oppressed.
It is he who gives bread to the hungry,
the Lord, who sets prisoners free.

2. It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind,
who raises up those who are bowed down.
It is the Lord who loves the just,
the Lord, who protects the stranger.

3. He upholds the widow and orphan
but thwarts the path of the wicked.
The Lord will reign for ever,
Zion's God, from age to age.

SECOND READING

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to Timothy

But, as a man dedicated to God, you must aim to be saintly and religious, filled with faith and love, patient and gentle. Fight the good fight of the faith and win for yourself the eternal life to which you were called when you made your profession and spoke up for the truth in front of many witnesses. Now, before God the source of all life and before Christ, who spoke up as a witness for the truth in front of Pontius Pilate, I put to you the duty of doing all that you have been told, with no faults or failures, until the Appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, who at the due time will be revealed by God, the blessed and only Ruler of all, the King of kings and the Lord of lords,

who alone is immortal,
whose home is in inaccessible light,
whom no man has seen and no man is able to see:
to him be honour and everlasting power. Amen.
The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice, says the Lord,
I know them and they follow me.

Alleluia!

Or

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lord Jesus was rich, but he became poor for your sake,
to make you rich out of his poverty.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

A reading from the Gospel according to Luke

Jesus said to the Pharisees:

'There was a rich man who used to dress in purple and fine linen and feast magnificently every day. And at his gate there lay a poor man called Lazarus, covered with sores, who longed to fill himself with the scraps that fell from the rich man's table. Dogs even came and licked his sores. Now the poor man died and was carried away by the angels to the bosom of Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried.

'In his torment in Hades he looked up and saw Abraham a long way off with Lazarus in his bosom. So he cried out, "Father Abraham, pity me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am in agony in these flames". "My son," Abraham replied "remember that during your life good things came your way, just as bad things came the way of Lazarus. Now he is being comforted here while you are in agony. But that is not all: between us and you a great gulf has been fixed, to stop anyone, if he wanted to, crossing from our side to yours, and to stop any crossing from your side to ours."

'The rich man replied, "Father, I beg you then to send Lazarus to my father's house, since I have five brothers, to give them warning so that they do not come to this place of torment too". "They have Moses and the prophets," said Abraham "let them listen to them." "Ah no, father Abraham," said the rich man "but if someone comes to them from the dead, they will repent." Then Abraham said to him, "If they will not listen either to Moses or to the prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone should rise from the dead".'

The Gospel of the Lord.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Please remember in your prayers all those who died recently especially John (Sean) Flanagan (Avondale Avenue), Breda Malone and Kay O'Sullivan.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
