ABUNDANT LIFE

Today we celebrate World Mission Sunday, a time to highlight the importance of sharing the Good News. The theme of this year's Mission Sunday is 'Abundant life', a phrase which brings to mind a fullness of life and a spirit of joy. Is this how we go about our mission?

In Evangelii Gaudium (The Joy of the Gospel), Pope Francis speaks of the joy of being a missionary. He says that all Christians, by virtue of their baptism, are missionary disciples: 'All the baptised, whatever their position in the Church or their level of instruction in the faith, are agents of evangelisation... Every Christian is challenged, here and now, to be actively engaged in evangelisation; indeed, anyone who has truly experienced God's saving love does not need much time or lengthy training to go out and proclaim that love. Every Christian is a missionary to the extent that he or she has encountered the love of God in Christ Jesus. So what are we waiting for?'

The disciples in today's Gospel certainly have missionary zeal, but they have got the focus wrong – they are thinking of themselves and their status, rather than the task they have been given. But Jesus teaches them a lesson in discipleship – their task is to serve. Something to think about as we reflect on our mission today.

Consecrated Life

A Living Tradition within the Church

8.00pm Friday 23 to 2.00pm Monday 26 October with Brian O'Leary SJ. Pope Francis named this a Year of Consecrated Life. He invites the church to reflect on the charisms of this ecclesial lifestyle. Marking the 50th anniversary of Vatican II's document on religious life, we offer this as an opportunity to thoughtfully and prayerfully take up the Pope's call. Using insights from the Bible, the history of religious life, and its underlying theology, we will explore the sources of the passion and commitment that religious life, at its best, has always embodied. Participants may choose to have meals in silence or talking. Cost: €210. To book tel: (01) 833 1352 or: reception@manresa.ie Manresa, Jesuit Centre of Spirituality, 426 Clontarf Road, Dollymount, Dublin 3.
